

Now it's time to do some research. This research will focus on the issue you have chosen and showed interest in. You must use at least 2 sources, take notes in the space provided below, and write a well-developed piece of writing that summarizes your findings.

Civic Issue

As you research your issue, record the supporting information in the space below using bullets and refuting information on page #2. Make sure you write down the book title, author, and page #s and/or the website used.

Describe the Issue

Key Questions: What is the problem? Why is it a problem? Are there people or organizations associated with this problem? Is there any reliable statistics or data that can be used to support your argument?

Source :

Source :

--	--

Viewpoints

Support or In Favor of

What groups or people are favorably associated with this issue? Why?

Source :

Opposed or Against

What groups or people are against this issue? Why?

Source :